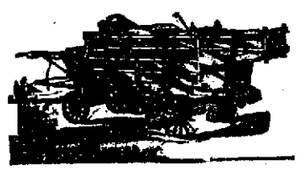
AGENT FOR



The Advance Threshing Machinery.

The best and fastest thresher in America, and a machine that stands without a rival. The ADVANCE Thresher has NEVER been REPLACED by any other machine on the Coast, but has replaced several others that HAVE FAILED to fill WARRANTEE. Why get some OLD STYLE machine because it is cheap when you can get an ADVANCE on the start and do good work in any kind of grain. You do not have to cut and try with the ADVANCE, but start your power, then commence threshing at once. I take the liberty of referring you to the following parties owning ADVANCE Threshers (without their knowledge): Dr. H. A. Davis, Harrisburg, after wasting most of the season trying to run a cheap machine, bought an ADVANCE and averaged 2206 bushels per day. M. F. White & Co., Dixie, same experience, but after getting an ADVANCE averaged 2046 bushels per day. Knox Bros., Albany, with a little 28-inch machine averaged 1650½ bushels per day. Henry T. Bold, Spangle, writes, after trying a —— machine the best part of the season bought an ADVANCE. Was then able to run without a blacksmith and carpenter shop. The ENGINE is guaranteed to pull more than any other, and will outtravel all others on the road. If you hear any loud boasts, please tell the parties the ADVANCE THRESHER and ENGINE are sold on their merits entirely. And I am willing to prove all I claim in any field at any time. Do not be humbugged by buying any machine until you see the ADVANCE. I also handle steam fitting goods iron pipe, laundry machinery and many other specialties. Send for catalogue of what you want.

CLAN-NA-GAEL AGAIN.

Senior Guardian Beggs of Camp 20 Under Arrest.

HE IS IN CLOSE CONFINEMENT

The Police Claim to Have Another Important Clue.—"Cooney, the Fox," Working on a Farm—Burke in Court.

CHICAGO, June 26.—John F. Beggs, senior guardian of camp 20, of the Clan-na-Gael, is under arrest. The police have kept the arrest a secret, and to-night refused to tell where Beggs was immured.

Beggs's arrival at the grand jury room today in a police patrol wagon was the first intimation that he had been taken into custody. The prisoner is a well-to-do lawyer, and has had some prominence as a politician. He was certainly at liberty last evening.

The impression has gained ground that he was arrested on orders from State Attorney Longnecker, whose theory that he committee of camp 20 tried and condemned Dr. Cronin as a spy has become the principal phase of the investigation.

The indications were that Beggs's replies to the interrogatories in the grand jury room did not throw any light upon the theory that Camp 20 "removed" Dr. Cronin as a spy.

When the senior guardian came out of the jury room he was quickly taken off again in the patrol wagon under guard.

Chief Hubbard to-night, when importuned by a newspaper man, who desired to interview the prisoner, said that Beggs did not wish to be seen. On this information, the rumor spread that Beggs was the Camp 20 informer, whom the authorities have intimated that they were in communication with. The idea that Beggs had turned informer was not, however, credited to any wide extent.

AN IMPORTANT CLUE DISCOVERED.

CHICAGO, June 26.—An afternoon paper says: The police of this city have secured a clue to the whereabouts of the man to whom Martin Burke sent a dispatch from Winnipeg.

It was addressed "Rhyneton Dane, Hancock, Mich." The assertion is made that the man is well known there, and that he has left the place, but the police are on his track, and expect to arrest him soon.

It is further given as a rumor that a large number of letters written by Detective Coughlin, now under arrest, to parties in Hancock have fallen into the hands of the police. It is said that the police have secured possession of a letter written by Rhyneton to Burke at Winnipeg, containing valuable information.

It has been discovered that on May 14, while Burke was in Joliet, Ill., a man named Patrick Cooney sent him from this city a money order for $10.

Assistant States Attorney Baker arrived from Washington on this afternoon with the papers for the extradition of Burke and left for Winnipeg to-night.

COONEY SAID TO BE WORKING ON A FARM.

CHICAGO, June 26.—A dispatch from Chillicothe, Mo., says: "Cooney, one of the alleged murderers of Cronin, is said to be working on a farm in this county. A detective, who has been here for two days, says that the fox was in Kansas City eight days ago. The detective left for the country this morning."

A WARRANT FOR BURKE.

OTTAWA, June 26.—The department of justice has received from Justice Bain, of Winnipeg, notice of the fact that a warrant had been issued for the arrest of Martin Burke, alias W. J. Cooper, for the murder of Dr. Cronin. No further proceedings will be taken in the department until Burke is committed for extradition.

BURKE IN COURT.

WINNIPEG, June 26.—Martin Burke, the Cronin suspect, was arraigned this morning. The counsel on behalf of the United States said that he was not ready with all the evidence, but would present some.

Officer Collins, of Chicago, testified as to Cronin's death, and identified Burke as the man wanted for complicity in the crime.

Officer McKinnon, of the Canadian police, testified to the nervous actions of the prisoner previous to his arrest.

Burke was then remanded until Tuesday.

THE CRONIN GRAND JURY.

Inquiry Resumed—Burke Identified as a Companion of Coughlin.

CHICAGO, June 26.—The grand jury resumed its inquiry into the Cronin case this morning.

The first witness called was Dr. J. P. Case, who testified that Coughlin and Burke tried to hire his horse shortly before the murder for an all night service. The doctor identified the picture of Burke as that of Coughlin's companion.

Patrick O'Brien, a saloonkeeper, J. B. Bell, of the Western Union, and representatives of the Postal Telegraph company were also called as witnesses.

Dr. Case identified Burke's picture as Coughlin's companion, but was not exactly positive. The doctor also stated before the grand jury that his friend J. B. Von was present when Coughlin called to hire a horse from him.

Von, being called, identified Burke's picture, and later in the day called at the jail and identified Coughlin.

A number of witnesses were examined, the object being to connect them, or to prove something about Camp 20, of the Clan-na-Gael, being connected with the Cronin conspiracy.

The sensation of the afternoon was the appearance of John F. Beggs, guarded by two policeman. It was alleged that he was examined as to the inner circle of Camp 20.

At the conclusion of Beggs's examination the grand jury adjourned until to-morrow.

It is believed to-night that the police are not so anxious about the capture of Cooney, "the fox," as the real estate agent, Hatfield, failed to identify his picture as that of the person supposed to be Simonds.

THE SIOUX COMMISSION.

No Apparent Opposition to the Bill at the Santee Agency.

SANTEE INDIAN AGENCY, Neb., June 26.—Governor Foster, chairman of the Sioux commission, reached here yesterday. There are only about 250 voters at this agency, who are fast becoming civilized. A council was held with the Indians in the afternoon. There is no apparent opposition to the bill.

Governor Foster and party left here this afternoon to rejoin the other commissioners. The signing commenced this evening, and in all probability every vote will be secured in this place. After the completion of the bill by Governor Foster there was no opposition whatever.

A DIABOLICAL SCHEME.

An Attempt to Blow Up the Harvard Hospital With Dynamite.

BOSTON, June 26.—A daring attempt was made yesterday to blow up the Harvard hospital with dynamite.

Dynamite cartridges were set in a pasteboard frame and placed on the window-sill of a basement window. Separate fuses led from each cartridge to one common fuse, which had been trailed across the street. The large fuse burned up to the point where the smaller ones joined, but on account of the dust and the windings of the fuse they had failed to burn. A quantity of kerosene was strewn over and around the smaller fuses, as if to make sure of an explosion when the spark should reach that point.

The police, into whose hands the cartridges were given, experimented with them to see if they were genuine, touching one off in the middle of Jarvis field. It was found to be a powerful one, creating a loud explosion and tearing up the earth for some distance around.

The college authorities are at a loss to assign any reason for any such explosion, or to suggest any purpose for which the destruction of the building was desired.

NO PRIZE FIGHTING IN LOUISIANA.

The Governor Issues a Proclamation Prohibiting Such Exhibitions.

NEW ORLEANS, June 26.—Governor Nichols to-day issued a proclamation to suppress prize fighting in the state of Louisiana.

He said that he had received information to the effect that one or two prize fights had been arranged to take place shortly near New Orleans, and his proclamation calls the attention of the parties to this fact, and demands that the officers of the law perform their duty, and that they use all legal authority to prevent prize fighting in any of the parishes of the state of Louisiana, and, if such exhibitions be attempted, that all persons connected with them be held to a strict legal responsibility and punishment.

THE SULLIVAN-KILRAIN FIGHT NOT AFFECTED.

NEW ORLEANS, June 26.—In an interview to-night with the parties selecting the Sullivan-Kilrain battle ground, they said that the governor's proclamation would not in any way interefere with the arrangements made, and that they never intended locating the ring within the jurisdiction of Louisiana.

HE STOLE HORSES.

A Winnipeg Sporting Man Arrested for an Old Offense.

ST. PAUL, June 26.—A Pioneer-Press Winnipeg special says: A decided sensation was created in turf circles last night by the arrest of J. F. Cable, owner of the trotting horse Idaho, now here in training for the summer races. He is charged with stealing sixty horses between May 15 and June 15, three years ago at Calgarry, N. W. T., and of driving them over the border into Montana, where he disposed of them. He was taken to Calgarry for trial to-day.

ELECTRICAL EXECUTIONS.

Expert Testimony Must Be Taken and the Law Will Be Long.

AUBURN, N. Y., June 26.—Electrical executions will not occur in this state without a long preliminary struggle. The present case of Kemmler, who was to be the first person executed by electricity, came up before Judge Day this morning, who decided that expert testimony concerning the effect of electricity on the human body must be taken. A referee was appointed and the case continued until July 20.

FORAKER IS THE MAN.

He Is Nominated on the Second Ballot.

DEATH OF GENERAL CAMERON

Commander Schley Relieved From Duty—Suit for Damages Brought Against Secretary Tracy—An Oregon Appointment.

COLUMBUS, O., June 26.—The convention was called to order at 10 o'clock this morning and the temporary organization was made permanent.

The report of the committee on platform, made public last night, was read and adopted.

Nominations for governor being in order, the names of E. L. Lampson, of Ashtabula, Congressman L. Morey, Colonel J. R. Neil, of Franklin county, Captain Wilson Vance, of Hancock county, General Robert P. Kennedy, of Logan county, General Asa Jones, of Mahoning county, Judge O'Neill, of Lebanon, and General Dawes, of Marrietta, were placed in nomination.

Congressman McKinley received an ovation when he presented the name of General Jones.

The first ballot resulted: Foraker, 297; Kennedy, 127; Dawes, 96; Morey, 47; Jones, 95; O'Neill, 19; Lampson, 39; Vance, 45; Neil, 57; Gibson, 23; General Bushnell, 41. There were 827 votes cast.

FORAKER CHOSEN.

The second ballot was taken and when the call was concluded private tally sheets showed that Foraker had gained only about thirty votes over the first ballot. Then the delegations began to go over to Foraker, and he was nominated.

Great confusion prevailed, but partial order was finally restored and Foraker's nomination was finally made unanimous. A committee was sent to bring Foraker before the convention.

After considerable waiting, Foraker was brought in and was received with enthusiasm. He made a speech and accepted the nomination. He said he understood the nomination meant that he was to be "a candidate for governor and that alone."

OTHER NOMINATIONS.

E. L. Lampson, of Ashtabula county, was nominated for lieutenant governor on the first ballot.

John S. Brown was nominated for treasurer; Urban H. Hester, for clerk of the supreme court; D. K. Watson, for attorney general; John Hancock, for school commissioner; William Hahn, for member of the board of public works; and F. J. Dieckman, of Cleveland, for supreme judge; John S. Brown, for treasurer; Urban H. Hesler, of Van Wert, for clerk of the supreme court; D. K. Watson, of Franklin, for attorney general; Dickman, of Cuyahoga county, for judge of the supreme court; William Hahn, of Ridgeland, for member of the board of public works, and John Hancock, of Ross county, for school commissioner.

The convention then adjourned sine die.

DEATH OF GENERAL CAMERON.

Consciousness Retained Until the Very Last—The Funeral.

LANCASTER, Pa., June 26.—General Simon Cameron died at 8 o'clock this evening.

The general's condition during the day was rather encouraging, and death came suddenly during a weak spell.

Up to the last attack he was conscious, and had no trouble to swallow the food given him, and which he appeared to assimilate.

Around the death-bed were: Ex-attorney General MacVeagh and wife, Mrs. Holdeman, James Cameron, Simon D. Cameron and wife, and Mrs. David Wells, a granddaughter.

The funeral will be held in Harrisburg.

SECRETARY TRACY SUED.

A Man Recently Dismissed From the Navy Wants Damages of $100,000.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—George B. Ormsby, who was lately dismissed from the navy, has entered a suit in the supreme court of the District of Columbia against Secretary Tracy for $100,000 damages for the illegal incident to his recent imprisonment at Mare island, California, and his trial and dismissal.

He alleges that there was not sufficient ground for his arrest, and no authority for his imprisonment, and that the case was not conducted in accordance with the statutes. He also charges a bad state of affairs on board the prison ship Independence.

Formal service was made upon the secretary of the navy to-day. The papers have been turned over to Judge Advocate General Remey.

THE COMING CENSUS.

No Permission Given Mongolian Emigrants to Pass Through the Country.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Commodore Schley has, at his own request, been relieved from duty as chief of the bureau of equipment and recruiting of the navy department, and will be given command of the new cruiser [illegible]ore.

It is understood that the reason assigned by Commodore Schley for his retirement from the bureau, where he had yet nearly three years to serve under his present commission is a sense of duty, and a desire to impress upon the younger men in the naval service the idea that staff appointments like the one are not to be held any longer than advantages to be derived in an educational way can be reaped.

INDIANS IN WAR PAINT

The Kootenais Refuse to Give Up Murderers.

THEY THREATEN TO WRECK TRAINS

The Big Forest Fires Charged to Their Account —Other Items From All Parts of the Northwest

KALISPELL, M T June 26—The powwow has ended and the chiefs have refused to assist in the capture of the murderers The troops are called upon but will not attack without orders from headquarters The Indians are on the mountain sides in bands near Ravalli watching the movements of the troops If they decide to turn over the murderers the trouble will end at once If not the renegade following of the fugitives from justice will be wiped out of existence

The whole trouble originated from renegades of the tribe who hang around railroad stations and do nothing but get drunk when ever opportunity offers The great majority of the Flathead Indians do not sympathize with these breeders of disorder The sheriff thinks that the only way now to capture the men without an open war is for the government to offer a reward If this is done some of the half breeds on the reserve will entrap the men Kochet, the Indian killed was the murderer of Demers the bookkeeper and also of the Indian Koonsaw

Posses from various towns are prepared to start for the scene at a moment's notice, if a collision occurs, but the troops are supposed to be able to take care of the belligerents

The Flathead Indians in the locality of Stevensville are getting their guns and ammunition in readiness and leaving in squads for the reservation They are dressed in war paint and breech cloths and the once peaceable Indians now seem bent on revenge

THE INDIANS THREATEN THE TRAINS.

HELENA Mont June 26.—Latest advices from the Flathead reservation say that the Indians have threatened to wreck the trains and destroy the tracks of the Northern Pacific road which they regard as their foe, because one of its trains secured the escape of the sheriff's party Superintendent Dickinson has telegraphed the governor and the war department for troops to assist in protecting the property of the railroad company The Indians are reported to have sent their women and children to the hills which means that the trouble is not ended yet. The refusal of the chiefs to deliver up the Indian murderers is looked upon as a declaration of hostilities

A DISPATCH FROM THE SHERIFF

HELENA, June 26.—Sheriff Heyfron sent the following message to Governor White from Ravalli in regard to the situation The Indians have concocted a scheme to wreck a Northern Pacific train between Ravalli and Jocko, and are lying in wait in the mountains They say that an Indian was shot from a train by the officers in pursuit of him, and that they will have revenge They have sent their women and children over the mountains which signifies that danger is ahead These Indians it is known are responsible for the big forest fire which occurred several days ago in that section Superintendent Dickenson asks for protection for the trains

THE RUMOR THOUGHT TO BE UNFOUNDED

HELENA Mont June 26.—The following message in regard to the Flathead outbreak has just been received by Governor White "St. Paul Minn The troops at Ravalli have not been withdrawn Captain Lawson in command and Agent Ronan both report that the presence of the troops is no longer required Ronan also says that a reward for the arrest of the supposed Indian murderers is all that is necessary Judging from the reports that I have received there does not seem to be reason to apprehend danger to railroad property as stated in the dispatch of Sheriff Heyfron to you I have directed Captain Lawson to remain until further orders BRIG GEN EUGENE

MONTANA FOREST FIRES

They Are Still Spreading, and Cover an Area of Nearly Five Miles Square

HELENA, June 26.—The forest fires in the mountains east of Bonner have increased in fury during yesterday and to-day and now cover an area of nearly five miles square extending across McCarthy's and Elkhorn creeks Communication with Elkhorn over the mountain trail has been abandoned and traffic is carried on via the lower road Two thousand cords of wood were burned last night

It is said the fire originated from a camp fire left burning near the Elkhorn road

The timber fire near Stevensville which caused so much excitement has been extinguished The untiring efforts of the residents at this place proved effective but not until great loss had been incurred A number of settlers were forced to move out

Unless there are heavy falls of rain very soon these ravaging fires will be so numerous as to seriously cripple the timber interests of Montana

MARTIAL LAW IN SEATTLE

The Almost Forgotten Case of the Man Who Wants $5,000

SEATTLE W T June The famous case of J D H Lang against W Lord Squire and John Collins for $5,000 damages for declaring martial law and overruling the writ of habeas corpus within the city of Seattle from the 8th to the 22d of February 1886 was brought to an issue in the district court to-day by the filing of an answer by Judge Green and Struve, Hanes and McMicken attorneys for the defendant Squire

This case grew out of the anti Chinese riots of 1886 when the defendant, Squire who at that time was governor of Washington territory and as such was ex officio commander of the militia forces of the territory assumed military command of the city and by force and arms enforced martial law and it is alleged in complaint prevented the issuance of writs of habeas corpus between the dates above mentioned

John Gibbon brigadier general of the United States army was ordered by the president to report with the Fourteenth regiment of the United States infantry for duty under Governor Squire and so on February 13 remaining on duty until the 22nd

Hanigan the complainant was arrested during this time as a rioter and incarcerated in the county jail where he was kept for thirteen days as he claims unlawfully and without a charge of any kind being made against him Upon these allegations he brought suit against Governor Squire and General Gibbon Owing to the crowded condition of the court docket, the case has never been brought to issue until to-day

From there the party will visit the Carbondale coal mines thence to Portland from whence they will on Saturday leave by rail for San Francisco

While here the party lunched at 1 P M with the Rainier Club and freely conversed about Seattle, but as all railroad magnates are reticent nothing was said more than that they were quietly looking at the country and investigating things in general

In conversation with a number of Seattle's leading men, Mr Crocker said "I am wonderfully surprised at seeing the great work in the way of rebuilding that is in progress here Seattle is undoubtedly the greatest city in the Northwest

THE LINE TO BE BUILT.

Woodstock Electric Motor Road—Arrangements all Concluded.

Work Will Commence at Once—Plans and Specifications—Surveys—The Route—How Cars Are Propelled

Satisfactory arrangements were concluded yesterday between the promoters of the Woodstock Electric Motor line and Messrs Schuyler & Tobin, whereby the construction of the line is assured Engineers are already at work preparing plans and specifications, and surveyors will be sent out on the line at once. The signers to the subsidy will ratify their agreement and as they are all property holders and considered responsible the contractors have accepted this agreement.

THE ROUTE.

The road is to be nearly six miles long It begins at a point on Fifth street, East Portland, where the present street railway ends and runs out to Washington street along Washington to Eleventh and up Eleventh to the Oregon & California rail road, thence along the right of way of the Oregon & California to the Powell's Valley road and up the road to No 2 school house on the corner of William Kern's place, where the power house will be located From this point the line runs north to the Meier & Frank tract, thence east through that tract to the east line of the Kelly donation land claim thence north a mile and three quarters and then east a quarter of a mile to the center of the Woodstock addition in section 18

AN INTERESTING DESCRIPTION

The road will be operated by overhead wires and the Sprague motor It is intended that the wires shall be extended along the street railway on Fifth street and down across the Morrison street bridge

Thus it will be seen that we shall soon have an electric motor line across each bridge the one across the Morrison street bridge running to a point some six miles northeast of the bridge and the one across the steel bridge running out to Fifth street with a branch to Albina In view of all this it is but natural to suppose that the street railway between the two bridges will soon be changed to an electric motor line, and it may be expected that the slow horse cars will soon be a thing of the past on both sides of the river

As no electric motor line has yet been in operation here there are many in the city who have but little idea of one, and a description will be interesting to them

THERE ARE SEVERAL WAYS OF RUNNING

Cars by electricity One is by electricity stored in boxes, which are placed in the car and run it till the electricity is exhausted when another box full must be put in This is, as yet, a very expensive style An other method of running cars by electricity is by a wire laid between the tracks or under one track This is expensive and trouble some as it is very difficult to keep a wire in such positions properly insulated

The most common and successful plan of operating such roads is by means of a wire suspended over the cars by cross wires running from poles on each side of the street This wire runs from the power house, where the electricity is generated and connection is made with the motor under the car by means of a trolley wheel, which is supported by an arm rising from the roof of the car, at the base of which is a flexible spring allowing

THE TROLLEY GREAT FREEDOM

Either vertically or laterally yet always maintaining its position on the under side of the wire, which renders it able to follow around switches or curves and not leave the wire The motors are placed beneath the car out of the way and where there is positively no danger of shocking the patrons of the road or even magnetizing their watches These motors are capable of running in either direction with equal facility are strong durable and highly efficient with parts interchangeable A loaded car moving from 12 to 15 miles per hour may be reversed with ease and stand still in respect of speed This has been tried many times to test its capacity with the cars loaded over the cars so perfect that only ordinary car driving can learn to handle cars by electricity the actual work being much less than driving a team of horses Owing to this perfect control the cars can be allowed to run at a higher rate of speed through the streets of crowded cities in which the country is reached if the track is in good condition, can move long at times express train rate The same current which supplies power with power to move serves to illuminate it brightly at night The noise which gearing generally makes is done away with by having each metallic gear mesh into gears of vulcanite fibre and which, strange to say, outwears the metallic one

THE GENERATING STATION

May be run either by steam or water power It consists of the mechanical generator the engine or water wheel, which is belted to the dynamo a machine to all appearances the same as is used for lighting but of slightly higher tension A very essential part is to have a current of sufficient tension to be transmitted a distance of from one to five miles without too great an outlay for the copper conductor, and yet to have the tension safe to life The force generally used is 500 volts which has been proved in hundreds of instances to be perfectly safe to life The current travels out over the wires, goes to the cars, then to the rails and returns by the rails to the generator thus completing the circuit People fearful of a shock may be pleased to know that they cannot possibly obtain one unless they at the same instant touch the wire overhead and the ground and in the event of a wire breaking the instant it touches the ground it draws out an extra amount of current which instantly melts a safety device on the pole and cuts this particular wire off from the remainder of the system rendering it as harmless as a piece of rope that may be lying in the street

THIS ELEMENT OF SAFETY

Applies to the machines as well as to people on the street for unless such a device were inserted the dynamo would "burn up" as the electrical people term it or in other words the machine would become so hot from the sudden overload as to char or carbonize the insulation and thus render it useless as a generator With the overhead system there is a feeding in device by which the size of the conductor supported above the track is reduced to that of a telephone wire while the main body of the current is carried on the wires on the poles alongside This system is comparatively covered by patents and is coveted by all companies using an overhead system for it is impossible to cut the line out for a distance of more than two poles since it is fed into the trolley one or working conductor at every pole Thus if a wire breaks it fails to the earth melts the leader catch and is harmless The car comes along the motorman sees the fault lowers the trolley and allows his momentum to carry him to the next feeding pole and away in safety and the passengers know naught of the break. When he reaches

THE END OF THE LINE

He reports break at one number the line man is detailed to fix it up and the public is none the wiser With single wire lines this occurrence would be a very serious matter necessarily cutting off all current from the point beyond the break and stopping all cars thereon The expense of operating is at least one third less than by horses even when fuel is expensive The number of employees is lessened and the company can pay better wages to those who remain There is also a great advantage over a cable in that there is more possibility of speed no heavy cable to move power and hence less of its getting out of order at each and every pulley Besides, it can be put in for about one-quarter or one fifth of what a cable system would cost.

A TRIP DOWN THE COAST

Locations for Light Stations—Straws With Wrecking—Proposed Telegraph Cable.

Major T H Handbury, United States engineer, has returned from a trip, Coos bay on the Manzanita The Manzanita went down to Coos bay to replace the lost whistling buoy at the mouth of the bay and also to place a buoy off the mouth of Alsea river, and Major Handbury took advantage of the occasion to go along and examine the coast near the mouth of the Umpqua river and at Heceta head, with a view to selecting sites for lighthouses to be erected at those places He found several suitable locations, and will take the necessary steps to secure what ever may be most desirable

Major Handbury reports that the beach north of the Umpqua river is strewn for miles with wreckage from the cabins of the ill fated Alaskan, carried there by the current from the scene of the wreck some fifty miles south

On the way home he landed at Tillamook rock and ran a line of soundings from the rock over the proposed route of a cable to a bight just below Tillamook head He found twenty-five fathoms near the rock and the water shoaled gradually to within 200 yards of the shore where it was three fathoms

An appropriation of $6000 has been made by congress for a telegraph line from Fort Stevens to Tillamook rock the matter having been urged by Major Handbury and Captain Sebree The line will be completed this summer, and will not only form a tie to bind the dwellers on the lonely rock to the rest of the world and make their lot less dreary and lonesome, but will be a great benefit to commerce enabling early notice of the approach of shipping to that port to be given and will also be a great convenience in regard to landing supplies at the rock Now the Manzanita may have to run down to the rock several times before it is possible to effect a landing, which costs a large sum for fuel, while when the line to the rock is completed, the state of the weather there can be ascertained and if it will not be possible to effect a landing the steamer need not go down

HELD TO ANSWER

I W Baker of Middleton was examined before United States Commissioner Paul R Deady yesterday on a charge of forcibly retaining a letter belonging to another He was held to answer and gave bonds in the sum of $200 The facts in the case are as follows

Some time ago an old man by the name of William Litton, who had been granted a pension located on a piece of government land in Washington county near Middleton This claim joined Baker's land and he was engaged by Litton to work on the latter's place at clearing up the land Litton was drawing a pension from the government of $90 per quarter and gave Baker in order for his mail at Middleton He had become somewhat indebted to Baker, and about a week ago the latter went to the post office to get his mail and received a letter for Litton containing the pension payment Going to Patton's he refused to deliver the letter till he had been paid in full for his work, and threatened to keep the pension warrant unless his money was to be coming As all the money the old man had was in the letter he was in a sore strait and concluded to have his refractory employe arrested

FARMERS ALLOWED TO IRRIGATE

A motion to modify the provisional injunction in the cases of O P and L B Ison and Strother Ison against the Nelson Mining Company so that plaintiffs might secure water for irrigation was argued in the United States circuit court yesterday Judge Deady ordered that the injunction be modified and plaintiffs allowed to use the water of Pine creek to the amount of 700 inches for irrigating and domestic purposes, between the hours of 6 A M and 6 P M, from this date to July 15, plaintiffs to give a bond in the sum of $5000 in each case within five days

It would appear more proper that the farmers should have been granted the use of the water during the night and the miners during the daytime But the order was made in accordance with the requests of counsel the mine being lighted by electricity so that it can be worked all night and the fields to be irrigated being several miles from Pine creek, so that the water turned in in the morning gets down to them in time to percolate through the soil during the night

ACCIDENTALLY RUN OVER

Coroner Dillin Held an Inquest on the Remains of T W Shea Yesterday Morning

Coroner A P Dillin yesterday morning summoned a jury to hold an inquest on the remains of T W Shea the brakeman who met his death in an accident on the Portland & Willamette Valley railway Tuesday evening

The first witness sworn was H A Scherr another brakeman who witnessed Shea's death Mr Scherr stated that after the train was in motion in the switch yards, Shea stepped in front of a car to pull the pin on the switch rope He then made three or four steps and fell I ran to where he was and Mr Fisher pulled him out from under the cars"

J N. Fisher, the next witness, testified that he saw the deceased at the time of the accident "I was waiting to take the train to Sellwood" said he, "and was standing alongside the track I saw Shea running along in front of a flatcar and as he was about to turn around, his foot slipped from under him and he fell I cried to him as loud as I could and ran to pull him out The first truck of the flatcar passed over his chest and the brakebeams caught him on his hips and doubled him all up He seemed to get his head down on his shoulders and endeavored to get his legs on the track which were run over by the third truck I got him out and saved him from the fourth truck The car was moving quite slow It do not think he had his foot caught in a frog for I saw no frog on the track"

THE JURY'S VERDICT

The jury found that the name of the deceased was T W Shea 30 years of age a brakeman by occupation and a native of the United States that he came to his death by being accidentally run over in the yard of the Portland & Willamette Valley Railway Company on the evening of June 25 1889

GATHERED ON THE EAST SIDE

Pioneer Engine Co. Will Probably Have a Span of Horses Soon

Serious Accident—Special Meeting of the Council—Sick Stranger—Street Improvement—Motor Repaired—Notes, Etc

The committee lately appointed by Pioneer Engine Company to solicit funds for the purchase of a team for Pioneer's engine started out yesterday and in two hours succeeded in raising the sum of $220 besides being promised $75 more at least which will be subscribed in a day or so The list of subscribers and their contributions as received yesterday are as follows

New Zealand Insurance Company $25 Northwest Insurance Company, $15, Oregon Insurance Company, $10 (these three companies by W D Pope agent, who also gave $10 personally), Dolphin & Clarke, $20, H A Hogue $25 Dunsmuir Lumber Company, $25 W B Railway Company $15, Standard Oil Company $25, Northwestern Agency $15 L C McCormick & Co, $10, J K Gilbert $10 John Knoworthy, $10, J B Lane $5

The committee hopes to raise about $500, and judging from their success yesterday will be able to do so, as the general feeling is strongly in favor of the enterprise It is understood that the common council will hire a man to drive and attend to the team and also pay for its keeping It is the intention to get a good span of horses and a good set of harness, and then a street sprinkler can be operated in the business part of the city when the occasion demands it as it certainly does at the present Further calls will be made upon the business men and heaviest property owners of the city and the committee will most likely meet with the same excellent success that characterized its work yesterday, as the object is a most laudable one

SERIOUS FRACTURE

A serious accident happened last Monday to the wife of Mr M Rice who lives on the corner of Ninth and H streets that it will keep her in bed for many weary weeks She went out on the street in the morning to get some vegetables from a wagon that had stopped in front of the house Stepping on a piece of board in some way she was thrown to the ground and in that part of the bone that fits into the pelvis or thigh was broken forming what is called an intercapular fracture Mrs Rice is a large woman weighing about 200 pounds and fell on her right side with her entire weight She was carried into the house and Dr Chambers was at once called who attended her injury It will be hard work for her as she is 67 years old and at that age a fracture is always dangerous Her attending physician however, reports that she is getting along very well It will be long time to recover from a fracture of this kind and in a great many cases the injury never gets entirely well

AN EXCELLENT IMPROVEMENT

The grading of Twelfth street is progressing very rapidly and will soon be completed At present the improvement is from Hawthorne avenue and Division street but a notice is now being published in the local paper of Twelfth street from D to Holladay avenue and some time next month the proper ordinances will be prepared and passed through the council and confirmed as well therefore be fully improved from Hawthorne to Holladay avenue and when the hill across Asylum creek has been widened so that teams may cross on it connection will be made with Eleventh street which is improved to Division on the south A splendid thoroughfare will thus be provided from Division street on the south to Hillsdale avenue on the north

A SICK STRANGER

About ten days ago an Englishman named Irvin arrived here and after being employed for a few days as a driver for a wood wagon was taken down with pneumonia at Mrs Dillman's boarding house in Stephens's addition He was without friends and means and Marshal Murphy took the matter in hand Yesterday he was moved over the river and taken in charge by the British society and will receive attention He is a very sick man and it is not thought that he can last very long

PORTLAND, THURSDAY, JUNE 27.

THE SINGLE TAX THEORY.

In Mr Thomas G Shearman's speech in favor of the single tax theory published in THE OREGONIAN yesterday, there was full ness of statement, with large wealth of illustration Ample reasons were given to show that the present methods of taxation are unsatisfactory, and a strong appeal was made in favor of the theory that would place all the burdens of taxation on land. The argument was stated with clearness and force and yet it seems to us that it will not bear the tests of examination.

The theory would virtually abolish private ownership of land, though Mr Shearman seems to shrink from the full admission of that consequence If the land were subjected to a greatly increased rate of taxation the proprietors would merely advance the rents and the tenants would have the taxes to pay This goes on the supposition that private ownership of the land is to be continued and recognized But says Mr Shearman Tax the land and the tax will be collected directly it cannot be turned over upon any one else, because the landlord cannot increase the rent of his bare land no matter how much you add to his taxes He can give up his land if he chooses, but he cannot make nor unmake the land." Again, If you tax all the landlords the full amount of the rent, they could not say to their tenants, If you do not pay that we will not rent you this land ' The simple answer is Here is any quantity of land the owners of which have abandoned it because they cannot pay the taxes, but we will work to pay the taxes and we will take that land '" This simply means that the state is virtually to own the land, it is to confiscate the land by taxation and to pass it on from one tenant to another in the effort to get the taxes out of it. This would be a fine scheme no doubt, to prevent anybody from getting profit out of land, and assuredly an excellent scheme for making all persons poor alike.

The proposition to throw all taxes upon land is based on the assumed necessity of taking from the rich an advantage they possess, but the rich are by no means the only land owners It is doubtful whether those who can properly be called rich are owners of one-fourth of the land values of the United States Moreover, while it is true that there has been great increase of wealth by appreciation of land values, it is true also that wealth has been widely distributed—much more widely, indeed, than wealth created by manufacturing industry, or that obtained by trade or by general speculation The increase of riches during the last thirty years upon which Mr Shearman discounts at length, the colossal fortunes whose accumulation he deplores, were not obtained mainly through real estate Such plutocrats as A T Stewart, Vanderbilt, Jay Gould Stanford Rockefeller, and the rest are not products of our system of land ownership To their great wealth land has contributed an infinitesimal fraction

In our older states the tendency is more and more towards a system that throws increasing taxes on real estate This of course, tends to relief of property in other forms In New York and Massachusetts the steady increase of real estate values on the assessment rolls, as compared with former years is very great and the decrease of other property if not proportionately so large, is still very marked This movement appears to follow a natural law The land cannot be concealed personal property in most forms can be consequently experience leads to gradual abandonment of the effort to pursue the fleeting forms of personal property and to fix attention more and more on real estate as the best available object of taxation Thus through natural causes there is a movement in the direction of placing a large share of taxes on land but it keeps within reasonable limits and does not contemplate the confiscation of lands by taxation

Mr Shearman dwells upon his assumption that the poor man is taxed something like 70 per cent, on his net income while the rich man is taxed but 2 or 3 per cent The first part of this assumption may be true the first part of it is scarcely true at all The man who has but little property is called on to pay but a little tax on it if he has no property at all he pays nothing But if he has he pays on his income through a tariff tax Most things however, that he consumes are produced in our own country and are as cheap as elsewhere in the world—in many cases cheaper The sugar tax is almost the only tariff tax that the poor really help to pay

When it is said that there is a widespread discontent among the poor since they see themselves deprived of the pleasures which they see the rich enjoy it is in order to ask when and where the poor ever did or ever can have the pleasures and luxuries enjoyed by the rich? Is this the discourse of a philosopher or is it blank nonsense? In all ages it has been found that there are no resources for the poor in envy of the rich and the man who suggests that there may be is merely a mischievous babbler not a teacher with a commission to enlighten and benefit mankind

We believe that it would be more just and more equitable and at the same time a more efficient method of obtaining revenue to put higher values on real estate for the purpose of taxation and to reduce the valuations for taxes on property in many of its other forms and as we have remarked the tendency in our states where experience has been amplest is clearly in that direction But behind this tendency there is no thought of the confiscation of land by imposition of taxes that would take the whole income obtainable from the land Nor is the fact overlooked by men who have breadth of vision that the aggregate of small or moderate properties in lands vastly exceeds the sum of the great properties and that any attack on the latter is an attack also on the former

MRS HAYES

The mortal remains of Mrs Rutherford B Hayes were interred in the quiet peaceful home to which she gladly retired after having dispensed the nation's hospitalities in the White house for four years. She was in the truest sense a "good woman." Of mental poise that prevented her from becoming giddy by the light to which she was unexpectedly raised through her husband's nomination and election to the presidency and possessed of a strength of character that enabled her to carry the native simplicity of her manners with her to an exalted station the record of her four years in Washington is one that reflects dignity and honor upon American womanhood At the risk of being called a crank, ' and of drawing ridicule upon herself because of the high position that she occupied she carried the simple convictions of right that were a part of herself with her to the White house and without ostentation ruled her life there as elsewhere by them She was not in the modern sense a reformer, but she was a persistent worker abating not one jot of her energy and industry in the great field of constantly widening effort that surrounded her until the final summons came. She was but 67 years of age not in any sense an old woman, but her life work had some years ago reached a point at which it could be dropped without a moment's preparation Her children, carefully trained, had grown to manhood and womanhood, her charities, steadily pursued had borne abundant fruitage of usefulness; her example uniformly just, gentle and steadfast for the right, was before the world and she passed away, in some respects the rarest woman with whom the events of an extraordinary age have made the public acquainted The respect of a nation finds fitting expression in the recital of the simple characteristics that ruled her life; the telegraph wires for several days prior to her death, were busy whispering messages of sympathy to her family and the voice of condolence has come from hundreds of homes since the words 'all is over" confirmed the fears that her sudden illness aroused

The funeral, which will take place to morrow, will in all probability be as unostentatious as were the quiet ways through which she ordered her life

WHERE IS THE REMEDY?

There is a remedy for the debauched condition of the police administration of this city That remedy is in the hands of the police commissioners. They are the men who are responsible

The first thing that should be done is to appoint an efficient chief of police The present chief is unequal to the responsibility He is wanting in both the intellectual and moral force necessary for the position The city needs a chief of police who has a moral sense that will forbid him to make compacts with the vicious classes for impunity and protection while they violate the laws

On the police force there is a number of good men, who, under efficient superiors or even under superiors who would not forbid them to act, would do the city good and honest service They have none of the benefits of the present corrupt system and would prefer to do their duty, if they were allowed

Since Olds is detained in jail by circumstances over which his friends of the police force have no control the best thing they can do as they seem to suppose, is to allow other members of the Olds gang to go on with their 'games" So in Frenchy's" gambling shop, on First street near Alder, the rattle of chips and coin may be heard all night long, even from the street But of course it isn't heard by the policemen of the gang They have ears to hear only of gamblers like Weber, who refuse to 'put up' or "stand in' They can't help but think it a little hard on 'a good man" like Olds to be locked up, away from the game and his friends but they do the best they can by going into court and swearing that Weber, whom he slew was a ' bad ' man, while Olds the slayer, possesses a stock of assorted virtues

We trust it is not too much to say that a reorganization of the police force of Portland under an efficient chief is very much wanted by all persons except gamblers, procurers, panders, prostitutes, ' crooks" of all descriptions, the vicious classes generally, and political corruptionists who are banking on the capital they find in the present condition of affairs

THE BEST PAVEMENT

Professor Newberry of Columbia college has published a valuable pamphlet on the subject of street making After a careful examination of the street pavements of Europe, Professor Newberry is convinced that the asphalt pavement has proved superior to all other forms in Paris London and Berlin In London the streets of this pavement use the Swiss or Sicilian asphalte mixed with gravel or oftener with sand and laid about two inches thick over concrete on a carefully prepared roadway The best costs in London from $8 to $4 a square yard and the annual expense of keeping it in perfect condition does not average more than 10 cents a yard The wear of the surface is exceedingly slow being only half that of wood or macadam It is easily kept clean and long continued observations show that horses fall on it as rarely as on stone '

Professor Newberry says that experiments made twenty years ago at the Columbian college school of mines prove the possibility of making a mastic from the Trinidad asphalt as strong, elastic and durable as the Sicilian or Swiss and much cheaper We quote

The best of all pavements as has been shown by experience in our own and foreign cities is made of asphalt When asphalt pavements first came into use in this country they were largely made with coal tar and proved defective in many ways afterward the methods and materials used in the Old World were imported and gave excellent results * * * The result of the experience of the last ten years has clearly shown that the pavement made with the Trinidad asphalt is equal to any in the world and superior to any other kind of pavement in use Its excellencies cleanliness silence and salubrity are so apparent that no argument is now needed to enforce them and to these may be added in place first on the list economy, for it costs as little and lasts as long as any other good pavement, and is much less trying to horses vehicles and human nerves It is rapidly growing in favor and it is not too much to say that it is the pavement of the future, and is destined in most localities to supersede all other kinds

WORK OF THE PRESS

The country has recently been agitated by misfortunes of terrific intensity incidents of horror and crimes that strike at the very root of our social system The machinery of the police and detective forces has been given full and complete sway but in no single event or series of occurrences has aught of importance been accomplished until the daily newspaper has gone forward and in its faithful devotion to the public service collected the truth appealed for aid interested popular sympathy and by the rare intelligence of its pursuit detected the perpetrators of crime even where discovery by the police has been abandoned as an impossibility

The legitimate newspaper is of the greatest aid in the preservation of law and order The press frequently by fearless exposure will compel the police to note the existence of vice and crime to which the guardians of the law had previously remained blind and often a sense of outraged public decency will cause the newspaper to bring to justice guilty criminals whom it is the interest of the police to protect while corruption in public officials is gradually being reduced to its minimum quantity through dread of newspaper exposure

The proof of these assertions lies in the instantaneous response that answered the appeal of the press throughout the land when the world was electrified with the news of the Johnstown disaster The light thrown upon the Cronin murder has been shed by intelligent reporters And the justice that came so near miscarrying in this city in the Olds trial, through the favoritism and debauchery of one of our municipal departments will fall upon the guilty, malicious hireling through the fearless arousing of public sentiment by the daily press of this city a responsibility which it does not shirk

The supreme court of Iowa has decided that it is against public policy ' for a man to keep a financial contract with his wife The case in which the decision was rendered was that of Nancy Miller against her husband for breach of contract. The two had serious quarrels presumably about money matters and to prevent their recurrence it was agreed that Mrs Miller would look closely after the wants of the family in the capacity of domestic economist and financial disbursing agent Mr Miller would pay her $200 yearly Past differences were to be forgotten, the divorce court was to be cheated of its fees and the family was to be kept intact by this arrangement Mrs Miller faithfully performed her part of the contract but her husband refused to pay the sum stipulated and she sued for the money Just where it is against public policy to bring a man to do financial justice to his wife it is difficult for the ordinary mortal, who believes that justice is no respecter of persons and ought not to discriminate against wives to see If the law does not consider a woman's work in the multitudinous duties which Mrs Miller undertook and accomplished worth $200 a year simply because she is a wife the public should try and restrain its amusement and horror when an ambitious woman occasionally breaks the marital chains that bind her to so niggardly a husband as Mr Miller of Iowa seems to have been and goes out washing in order to earn a little pin money

Owing to the long continued dry weather and the opportunity that it has given for slashing," it may be supposed that forest fires are more likely to occur than is usual this early in the season Indeed the sultry and smoky air of the past few days indicates that fires in the clearings have in some instances at least escaped the limit intended by those who lighted them and are already rioting to some extent among the fir forests of the foot-hills It is certainly much to be regretted if the smoke that is the one disagreeable feature of our early autumn season is to prevail throughout the summer A little care at the right time would prevent a condition that when once established is master of the situation until the fall rains come to put out the fires that carelessness has kindled

R J Cowey a colored man, has been appointed by President Harrison, postmaster at Luverne Alabama The Democratic paper Enterprise comes boldly out and warns the new official not to accept the position for fear that harm should come to him Mr Gowey has been placed in office by the executive of the nation, and he should be protected in the performance of his duties by every power known to the law Should any violence happen to the postmaster, the whole force of the government if necessary should be used to ferret out the perpetrators, and they should be brought to justice Let the general government put a stop to this reign of terror

The law is a profession employing in its behalf high faculties of mind But many of its votaries, in the eager desire for success forgot the traditions of the science, and descend to tricks and practices that do no credit to the law One of the most frequent and painful exhibitions of this fact is seen in the attempt to bulldose and browbeat witnesses There are people to-day suffering the direst injustice rather than risk the scathing fire through which unscrupulous counsel compel them to pass on the witness stand

Jay Gould has lost several great opportunities to redeem his reputation from greed and covetousness His latest chance was afforded by the Johnstown calamity With several thousand miles of railroad and other properties aggregating $75,000 000 he sends $1000 to the sufferers George W Childs of Philadelphia, worth 10 per cent of Gould's wealth gave ten times as much. With few exceptions the rich men of our nation have not loosened their purse strings to any noticeable extent

Frank Jarvis of Rooster Rock was placed on trial in this city yesterday charged with one of the most atrocious crimes known to the law Horrible as is the offense with which this man is accused, he merits a fair and impartial trial but if found guilty he should be given the ultimate punishment which the criminal code can inflict There are some crimes the contemplation of which is an outrage to public decency and private morals, and this belongs to that category

Some men have an idea that a position in the service of the government is a place where a man can enjoy a continual picnic They forget that the citizen owes the same duty to the government that would be expected of him in private enterprise The old idea of the commercial traveller that he will indulge in a good time because the house pays for it will scarcely hold good now that strict business methods are being introduced into the public service.

The Seattle preachers have come out strong against Sunday papers One minister says all good Christians will refrain from reading the Sunday papers We thought the age of progressive Seattle would never have permitted such an illiberal sentiment to spring forth from her midst It may be a sin to receive enlightenment on Sunday but it will take more than the mere statement of the ministry to convince mankind at large of the fact.

Forsker notwithstanding frequent newspaper declarations to the contrary, has been renominated for the governorship of Ohio While in office he has served the people faithfully even if he has proven a thorn in the flesh of the Standard Oil democracy of Ohio The state convention very warmly endorsed the administration of President Harrison and demanded national protection for the wool growing industry

Governor Hill of New York has vetoed the bill enacted by the legislature of that state providing for compulsory education On the ground that it is the duty of the parent to see that the children educated is no argument against giving to the state the power to force that which the parent frequently neglects If men did all that they ought to do there would be no need either for laws or prisons

The latest time that the name of Simon Cameron was mentioned in public prior to the announcement of the stroke of paralysis that visited him a few days ago was in connection with a check for $1000 drawn in favor of the Johnstown relief committee It is fitting that a long life of exceptional usefulness should be closed by an act of substantial charity

Congressman Dearmond met with a warm reception from his friends and neighbors of Roseburg on his return home for his vacation a few days ago Mr Dearmond is an industrious and intelligent worker not for any section but for the whole state and merits what has been freely accorded him—the confidence and respect of his constituents

The warm dry weather foreboades an early harvest while the rains of May insured an abundant one in most lines Vegetables and especially potatoes are likely to suffer from the lack of moisture during their early growing period but the promise of grain is quite up to the average and the hay crop was excellent

THE OREGONIAN is in receipt of a well written description of the interesting exercises of a Washington county public school which it must decline because it is unable to give space to all such exhibitions and it is not fair to publish one and refuse others

They have at least one well-established journal in China This is the Pekin Gazette which is about to enter upon its 1000th volume It will observe the anniversary occasion by giving a necessarily condensed history of the past ten centuries

My son remember that a diamond in the rough don't make the man that beneath the soiled hide and torn grows the largest amount of useful brains and greatest good more of noble souls are found Look this section through, I speaks all languages No man but a fool doubts that in ten years Portland's population will be 150 000 people No man but an idiot that can not see that the location of ground between the two rivers is the most beautiful as well as the natural place for Portland a residence and business property for on their banks or either side lie her shipping and manufacturing. It is only 45 miles by rail from the terminus of all the railroads to the Pacific Northwest; now in Albina on the Willamette River to the Columbia River whose waters drain an empire. All otherwise desirable Portland east west or south combined into every good point given can not show up one-tenth as many as central Albina Addition can show for a man to invest his coin for a few days and secure profit on his dollars Maps and facts furnished on demand. Cut this out for your scrap book. You will want it some day and want it bad More to follow

NEW CAR HOUSES, ETC.—Various improvements are being made at the eastern terminus of the Sunnyside & Mount Tabor line. A building, one story high, 40x80 feet, is being constructed, which will afford room for the cars when they are not on the road. Already the sites are graded and the rafters are in position. The tracks have been laid the entire length, and in a few days the building will be roofed in. It is proposed to have the main track extends along the north side of the new building, only a few feet separating them. It is proposed to put the roof on the north side so as to protect the track and wall, and a space between the track and wall, and a passageway provided that will be a great convenience to the public. At the present terminus of the line carpenters are engaged in constructing another building for cars, which is already well under way. A large force is employed in slashing and burning the timber and brush south of the track along the eastern base of Mount Tabor. Quite an area has been cleared, and above the fire and the wielding of axes, work goes bravely on.

VESTAL ELEVATOR.—The million bushel grain elevator of Peavey & Co. at Albina, is progressing favorably. The massive masonry work of the foundation was completed last week. The lower story of the building, which is of massive timbers to support the weight of the grain, is about two-thirds completed, and the work of binning or cribbing, for holding the main part of the structure where the grain will be stored, is called will be begun about the 5th of July. The main part of the building will be divided into bins, 12x32 feet, and 60 feet high. All the walls will be of planks, 2x6 and 2x8, and over 300 men will be put to work on it, as Mr. Melannon, the contractor, is bound to have it done on or before the 1st of August. It will be a rather imposing structure.

A HOME NIGHT'S BENEFIT.—Considerable interest is being manifested by the sporting fraternity and others in the benefit tendered to Mr. John Letcher, manager and partner of the Standard theater, by Mr. Sam Dirt and others, which is to take place to-morrow night. Jack Dempsey, Denny Costigan, Dave Campbell and many others will appear. The former is prevented from appearing by a contract entered into with the California Athletic Club, but he will act as master of ceremonies. The bill for to-morrow night is without a doubt one of the strongest and most attractive ever before presented in this city. The sparring match between Dave Campbell and Denny Costigan will be very interesting.

LITTLE WANDER AWAY.—Children straying away from home is getting to be a common occurrence. The youngsters are allowed the freedom of an open yard, or even the sidewalks of an open street, and following the instincts of a curious and active mind, they wander away, following the panorama of strange sights that attract their attention, without stopping to think where their small feet are carrying them. Sometimes they wander a mile or more away from home, and then, as they begin to realize their situation, a plaintive wail calls some kind lady to their rescue. The children are generally taken to the police station, where anxious parents are sure to go in search. Tuesday five lost children were restored to their parents by the police.

MOUNT TABOR MOTOR LINE.—Now that the line is running with so much satisfaction to the traveling public, the value of real estate of Mount Tabor is advancing rapidly, and fancy prices are being paid for choice locations, and while it is noticed a sale made by F. V. Andrews & Co. is regarded at the equivalent of $5625 per acre, it is learned also that a prominent man has contracted at $600 for another acre beautifully situated. These transactions and others now being negotiated show, not that Mount Tabor will be a very popular suburb of Portland, but that it is already so established, for the public appreciate the charming attractions of the locality.

JUSTICE'S EXAMINATION.—In accordance with the notice given before and in the advertisements, examination for entrance to the academic and scientific department of the university, will be held at the Bishop Scott Academy this morning and continue all Saturday. The candidates will please present themselves at 9 o'clock, when the necessary papers will be given them. Dr. Eliot will supervise the examination, but the papers will all be sent to Yale for examination and acceptance. The examinations are identical in time, subjects and general conduct with those held at New Haven.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.—One of the best ways to spend the coming Fourth will be to go on the excursion to be given by the Evangelical church of East Portland to Multnomah falls or the Cascades. The Handel male quartette of East Portland will accompany the excursion and render some of their best vocal music on the boat. The steamer S. G. Reed, chartered for the occasion, will leave Oak street at 7 A. M.; Stinson's wharf, East Portland, 7:15, and Gasser's wharf, Albina, 7:30. Tickets for adults, $1; children, 50 cents.

FUNERAL OF HARRIS MEYER.—The funeral of the late Harris Meyer took place yesterday, and was largely attended. The religious services were held in accordance with the customs of the Jewish faith. The burial services were conducted by the Masons. Deceased came to this coast in 1849, and has been in continuous and active business ever since. He has resided in Portland for about ten years. He was a kind husband and father, and respected by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

M. E. CONFERENCES.—The conferences of the Methodist Episcopal church on the North Pacific coast will be held at the following times and places: Puget sound conference at Snoqualmoo August 4; Columbia river conference, Ellensburg, W. T., August 14; Northwest Norwegian and Danish mission conference for Oregon, Portland, August 22; Oregon conference, Portland, August 28. Bishop Bowman will preside at these different conferences.

WORK ON THE NEW HOSPITAL.—Work on the centre facade of the new Portland Hospital in East Portland, has been commenced. The contract for the stone foundation has been let and workmen are busily engaged laying the stone. It is expected that the stone work will be finished inside of a week, and then the main structure, which will be 60x80, will be vigorously pushed to completion. The part being built is 70x112 feet, and its delays occur it will be ready for occupancy by Christmas.

WELL STOCKED.—Captain James Williams caught a two-pound carp in his seine while fishing for salmon at Willow bar. This shows that the carp has established itself in the Columbia, and has come to stay. With the carp, the catfish and the shad added to the salmon, sturgeon, trout, smelt and the other fish in the Columbia that stream is pretty well stocked with brain food, and accordingly there should be a great visible growth in the intellectuality of the residents along its shores.

HE TOOK THE OPIUM ROUTE.—Near Roseburg a few days since, Chee Gee, an old Chinaman, chopped the hands of two of his countrymen because they refused to lend him money. He was indicted by the grand jury, and Tuesday night he committed the "happy despatch" with opium furnished him through the bars. He has saved the county some expense and the courts some trouble.

NEW KIND OF CHERRIES.—Mr. Seth Luelling of Milwaukee, has presented the immigration board with a sample box of cherries of the "Bing" variety, being a seedling from the "Black Republican." The fruit will average three and one-half inches in circumference, and is of excellent flavor.

THE CLEARING HOUSE IS ASSURED.—All of the banks in the city have signed the constitution of the proposed clearing house, and a meeting will be held in a few days to elect officers and to appoint an executive committee. It is expected that the clearing house will be in operation in a few weeks.

GREAT REMNANT SALE of carpetings, Willow, Jaquettes, Body Brussels and Tapestry, and special sale of Angora Rugs this week at Walter Bros., First and Yamhill.

ANNUAL ANNOUNCEMENT.—The Medical Department of the Willamette University have just issued their annual announcement or prospectus for the session of 1889-90. It is a neatly printed twenty-two page pamphlet giving names of trustees, faculty and students, and sets forth the different courses of lectures required for graduation. The fall session opens October 7.

NOTICE OF CHANGE OF LANDING.—On and after July 1 the steamer Alarm will leave from foot of Washington street for Albina. First trip, 6:15 A. M., and every half hour thereafter until 12 o'clock, midnight, landing at North Portland when called. The cheapest excursion out of Portland, and giving a fine view of the harbor and shipping.

THE SCHOOL DISTRICT'S INDEBTEDNESS REDUCED.—School Clerk Allen has forwarded to the Bank of California, of San Francisco, an order for $12,000, redeeming one of the nine $10,000 bonds issued by the school directors, on which had accumulated $2000 interest. This reduces the indebtedness of the school district to $70,000.

COLUMBIA RIVER EXCURSION.—As will be seen by an advertisement in another column the S. G. Reed and barge is chartered to give an excursion to Columbia Grove next Sunday. The management is in the hands of a large and well selected committee.

DECLARED A DIVIDEND.—The Granite Mining Company, Coeur d'Alene, has declared a dividend of 2 per cent., payable July 1. This means that $10,000 is to be divided among the shareholders.

RIGHT LEG BROKEN.—John Matthews, an employe at Weidler's mill, whose right leg was broken by being run over by a log carriage last Saturday, is being cared for at St. Vincent's hospital.

AND SO HE WASN'T NATURALIZED.

Why Tom Ward Didn't Become a Citizen of the United States.

Tom Ward, the well known pugilist, applied to Judge Deady yesterday to be naturalized. The judge not having the honor of Tom's acquaintance, inquired who he was and what was his occupation. Tom stated that he was a prize fighter by profession, and was the man who had whipped Larry Sullivan and won some notoriety in California in bruising and being bruised. When asked if he thought his profession was an honorable or legitimate one, he replied that he thought it was; that he liked it, and there was money in it. He was informed that he must find two witnesses to swear that he was a man of good moral character, and had resided in the state the period required by law, and was favorably disposed toward the laws, manners and customs of these United States, etc., etc.

Tom went out and soon found two men who had known him for five years or more and I induced them to go up to the United States court with him. One of these men, who, by the way, is a lawyer, being duly sworn, was asked if he knew Tom to be a man of good moral character. This was not what he had gone there to testify to, and, like a sheep before the shearer, he opened not his mouth, but was dumb for a space and the court said, "This application is dismissed," and Tom and his witnesses passed out.

A "CORRECTION."

June 26, 1889.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Your editorial in to-day's paper headed "Gamblers and Police" is not exactly correct. In justice to Charles Slifer I wish to say that I had been a tenant of his for the past three years in the old Hardenburg building, and when he moved his saloon into the present building he rented me the upper part of it at $30 per month, and at the same time told me that he could rent it for gambling at $100 per month, but preferred that I should take it at $30, for he considered gambling as detrimental to his business; and when he notified me to vacate, he told me that he had sold a half interest in the saloon to other parties, and that they (not he) had "fixed it up with Sam so they could gamble up stairs." Whether Slifer is, or is not, personally, or at all, interested in gambling, I know not. J. H. FISK.

BRIEF MENTION.

Pleasure boats for rent, at Stark street.

Among recent suits is one brought by E. L. Reed against the Columbia Fire & Marine Insurance Co. for a balance of agency commissions claimed due him. Mr. Reed was agent of the Fire Insurance Association (limited), of London, up to the time of their reinsuring in the Columbia, and says the later named company entered into a certain agreement for his benefit in consideration of getting the fire association business, and which was made before the English company would elect them as reinsurers.

A WORK OF ART.

There is now on display in the show-windows of the Oregon Picture Frame Company, Abington building, Third street, a painting that is attracting a great deal of attention from the Portland people. It represents a scene on the Canadian Pacific railway, with the towering form of Mount Ross in the foreground and the impending glaciers in the distance. It is the work of Mr. A. E. Powell, a rising young artist of this city. In the same window is an oil realistic painting, "The Alaskan's Last Voyage," ably executed by Messrs. Powell and Pickett.

A CANADIAN REPUBLIC

In the discussion between the Canadian liberals, who desire commercial union with the United States and ultimate annexation, and the Canadians, who look forward to a vast Canadian republic as the ultimate destiny of the Dominion the opponents of annexation seem to have the advantage It would not be to the advantage of the United States to annex the enormous territory included within the lines of British North America stretching from the St Lawrence to the Arctic ocean It would swell our country to an extent that would produce a severe political strain since it would bring under United States laws five millions of people wedded to laws and customs that are repulsive to American sentiment and inconsistant with the spirit of American institutions The French population would be as non assimilative as the Catholic inhabitants of Mexico the English tory population would prove a discordant element, and altogether it seems as if the happier destiny of Canada would be to become a great republic, distinct from the United States She has ample territory plenty of fertile soil almost inexhaustible forests and a climate that is not more severe than the northern portion of the United States The slight elevation of the Canadian Northwest above the sea the Chinook winds from the Pacific and the alternate southerly winds make the climate so mild during five months of the year to within 25 degrees of the pole that wheat is a reasonably safe crop in the great basin of the Mackenzie river North of the 54th parallel of latitude there is an area of 816 000 square miles suitable for grazing of which 316 000 square miles are adapted to the raising of wheat The following estimate is given of what is officially claimed to be either arable or grazing acres in British North America

In the Maritime provinces	18 000 000
In Ontario and Quebec	130,000,000
In Manitoba, Saskatchewan Assiniboia and Alberta	200 000,000
In British Columbia (exclusive of Peace river)	50 000 000
In the Peace river and Mackenzie valleys	600 000 000
Total	898 000 000

Of the 398 000,000 acres of tillable or pasture land south of the fifty fourth parallel not more than 60 000 000 acres are now embraced in farms leaving 338 000,000 acres to be occupied Allowing 100,000,000 for lands better adapted for grazing than cultivation there is in Canada south of the fifty fourth parallel 238,000,000 acres of vacant tillage lands or in other words, the Canadian area of profitable wheat culture is about equal to the arable public domain of the United States The maritime provinces of the Dominion with only a tenth of their arable area under cultivation, now furnish New England with horses, sheep, potatoes eggs and hay and the yield could be increased five fold under even the present methods of farming The province of Quebec exports hay and potatoes to the United States to the value of $1 000 000 annually The province of Ontario raises more wheat than any one of the United States save Ohio, Indiana Illinois, Minnesota and Dakota It exports nearly 10 000 000 bushels of barley annually to the United States and it can enormously increase its production of wheat barley, horses cattle and sheep British Columbia has 50 000 000 acres of arable and pasture land exclusive of the Peace river region Its climate is mild like that of Oregon and Washington and splendid grass lands adopt it admirably to stock raising Manitoba and the Northwest territories south of the fifty fourth parallel include 276 000 000 acres of wheat lands a country described as having a greater grain and stockraising capacity than all the lands on the Black the Baltic and the Mediterranean seas combined The spring anemones that bloom at St Paul on the 15th of April are in bloom on the same date at Winnipeg, are found on Peace river 1500 miles from St Paul on the 28th of April, and have been gathered on the Yukon 1000 miles beyond Peace river within the Arctic circle early as the 14th of May while the ice leaves the rivers as early at Fort Vermilion Athabasca as it does at Fort Benton, Mont

In the Canadian Northwest south of the fifty fourth parallel there are 100 000 000 acres of good wheat lands The average yield of wheat per acre in Manitoba is one third greater than it is in Ohio Illinois Indiana Minnesota and Iowa and the region referred to is capable of producing 426 000,000 bushels when its population reaches 6 000 000 the present population of the states named

Corn is not a Northern product and Canada will continue to purchase from the United States her supply of corn corn meal and raw cotton Pork will always be largely imported from the United States since it can be cheaply produced in a corn growing country The day is not far distant when Canadian forests will be the principal source of the wood supply for a large portion of the United States The forest extends for 1000 miles from the head of Lake Manitoba to the Rocky Mountains Little anthracite coal exists in Canada but there is bituminous coal in abundance The fisheries of Canada are most extensive and productive and their field will be immensely increased when railway communication reaches the Great Slave lake a body of water nearly equal to Lake Superior and the Mackenzie river which during five months of the year affords a navigable channel, on which for over 1000 miles large steamers can safely sneed to the Arctic ocean A railway from Winnipeg to Hudson s bay is also projected and its early construct on appears probable

Canada clearly possesses everything necessary in the commercial sense to the establishment of an independant nationality She has practically an exhaustless capacity to produce food clothing fuel and the building materials essential to shelter Her Faster n ports are nearer Europe and her Western ports nearer Asia than any other harbors on the seaboard of America Her railway system is not more interrupted by snow in winter than the railways of the Northern frontier states from New England to Washington and her harbors on the East and at the West are open and safe every day in the year

This is the argument in substance of the Canadian writers who argue with great force and plausibility that the destiny of Canada is not annexation to the United States but independent nationality Surely if the United States stirring with 3 000 000 in days when there were no railroads steamboats or cable communications with a population of 5 000 000 and all the engines of the civilization of to day to apply could multiply her eights

A HUMBLE FRIEND

Through the kindness of a charming young woman who met with a serious accident on the railroad recently the author of this item received from one Alexander Campbell a real Druid who claimed to have lived a little matter of 7000 years ago The language he used may be supposed to be as dead as a coffin nail which according to Dickens is the deadest piece of iron mongery in existence but this young woman was equal to the emergency One of the beauties of this science of calling back spirits is its ability to rise to emergencies, and this case was no exception She made plain to the audience communications given by her in the "Druidic" tongue by this ancient spokesman and her gift in interpreting it elicited the warmest praise. Not that what he said, and she translated amounted to anything in particular. However, from the accounts of it that are found in the newspapers we are led to infer that this particular Druid lived in the stone age, that the conveniences of the period were not equal to those that the people of the present day enjoy that they were without railroads and telegraph in those days that their household implements were not up to the standard to which inventive genius has since brought them and that their implements of war did not compare with ours In short if we are to believe this ancient and hitherto unknown oracle things have improved in very many respects since his day a fact of which, but for the obliging young woman who translated the language in which he spoke no one would have dreamed Of course the audience was delighted as well as instructed by this test of spirit power and sagacity as well as of its influence over poor mortals and its interest in matters terrestrial The test was every one knows who keeps pace with this science was not an unusual one, but even the most skeptical must admit that it was a remarkable one, and one calculated to command the veneration of mankind

ONLY AN EMBEZZLER, BOLD

Walter Jules alias Rockwood, Manager of the Manitou Electric Light, Absconds With the Company s Money

Marshal Frank Bowers, of Manitou Springs Col yesterday passed through the city on his way to Salem to get the necessary requisition papers for Walter Jules alias Rockwood who is wanted there for embezzlement

Jules was general manager of the Manitou Electric Light Company a position which he held for nearly two years As manager of the company considerable money passed through his hands He was always considered honest and worthy of the trust confided in him until about four weeks ago, when his sudden disappearance led to an investigation of his accounts It was then ascertained that the lowly manager had embezzled about $900 of the company's funds A description of the man was telegranched to the police officials of the different cities along the coast and this finally led to his arrest in Portland

Officer Barry who had also received a description of the absconder was at once on the lookout A man nearly answering the description, was found in the employ of the Willamette Falls Electric Light Company in this city He engaged himself to the company under the name of Walter Rockwood about a week ago Officer Barry placed him under arrest whereupon he confessed that he was the much y wanted manager of the Manitou Electric Light Company

A reporter, on entering the front cell of the city jail where Jules is confined was greeted by a pleasant faced man about 30 years of age The prisoner is about the medium hight has a blonde complexion, a light mustache a short growth of beard and is very jovial in disposition

Yes" he said in a reply to a query as to whether he was he or someone else they have got me and I guess I will have to face the music I expected to be arrested and only wonder that I was not apprehended sooner"

Why did you not go to Canada the haven of all respectable absconders, like any sensible man" was asked

Jules only replied with a good natured laugh and a furtive look that spoke louder than words the bars are closed

There is no need of a boodler trying to get away now continued he for the panic days of that fraternity are ig

How did you spend all your money in such a short time? further queried the reporter

I hardly know how I spent it, or where it went to I only know that I had a royal good time and I expect to atone for it

Have you a wife and family?

Yes I am married and one wife is the extent of my family She knows where I am and has known ever since I left I did not take her with me

Jules could not say what his probable penalty would be but he expressed himself as fearing that it would be rather severe

Marshal Bowers will return from Salem to day and take the festive young ex manager of the Manitou Electric Light Company to the scenes of his misdeeds

Attorney General Webster counsel for the Times pressed him hard and repeatedly to give the name and became very angry when he found that he could not move the witness There was a passionate scene between the counsel and witness the former finally abandoned the attempt to compel Sexton to reply and began questioning him in regard to Alexander Sullivan

Sexton said that he regarded Sullivan in the same favorable light as when he introduced him on a speech at the Irish league meeting in Boston in 1881 He declared that he held Sullivan in high estimation on account of the unselfish public services that he has rendered

FLOUR—Receipts for the week have been 5678 bbls, against 6294 bbls for the preceding week. Of this amount the valley sent in 2993 bbls, against 1003 bbls, coming from east of the mountains. The market shows no change in prices, but a healthier tone prevails and the demand is good. We quote standards $4; other brands $3 50.

OATS—The receipts for the week have been 5678 ctls. The market is a little firmer than for some time, by reason of the lighter receipts; it is still fair to heavy however. Trade is among local consumers only, and is of a jobbing nature. We quote 1½@1¾c per lb.

BARLEY—Receipts for the past six days have been 3246 ctls, of this amount 1246 ctls. are bran, 1000 ctls barley and 760 ctls. mixed. The market shows but little change. We quote: Bran, $13@ 14 per ton; chops, $15@16; chop, $17 50@20; ground barley, $22 50 per ton.

POTATOES—Old onions are about out of the market. The market is at present supplied principally with California new crop, but Oregon produce will soon be in. We quote $1 00 for choice to fancy.

VEGETABLES—The market is in fine condition and trading in all kinds active. Oregon produce is in good demand, except in the matter of tomatoes. There string beans, peas and cabbage are plentiful. We quote California green tomatoes $1 50 per 4-pound box; cucumbers 50c per dozen; lettuce, carrots, turnips and beans are peddled. Green cabbage, 1c per pound, peas 3c per pound.

ONIONS—Receipts for the past week have been 85 sks. We quote: old, 40@50c per sack; new, $1.

GREEN FRUITS—Receipts for the past six days have been 2520 boxes. The market continues active and very firm. Oranges are in moderate supply. California peaches are coming in in quality, and apricots are plentiful. Some new California apples have also come up, and pineapples are plentiful. We quote: Oranges, $4 50@5; lemons, $3 50@4 50 per bunch; lemons, $7 00 per box; California peaches, $1 25@1 75 per box; apricots, 30@40; apples, $1 50 per box; Oregon cherries, 10@12c per box: raspberries, both red and black, plentiful at 6c per pound; blackberries, 10c per pound.

BUTTER—The receipts for the past week have been 724 pkgs. Market steady. We quote fancy creamery 20c per pound, 40c a roll, good to fair dairy, common 10@12½c.

EGGS—The market is stronger, owing to the increased demand, which comes principally from Portland. Receipts continue about the same, while the past week they have been 880 cases. We quote 12c.

POULTRY—Receipts are ample, but the market is in better condition as regards chickens than at the time past. We quote: Chickens, old hens, young broilers $2 50@4 50, turkeys 10c per pound, and ducks and geese $5@6.

HAY—Receipts for the past week have been light, but 10 tons coming in. Old hay is getting pretty well cleaned up and the new crop just beginning to be harvested has not begun to come in yet. We quote for old hay $10@12.

HIDES—Receipts for the past week have been 1,095 pounds. The market is weak and heavily stocked and gives every indication of increased stocks and decidedly lower prices. We quote: Dry hides, selected prime, 9@10c; green, selected, over 25 pounds, 4c, under 25 pounds, 3c; sheep pelts, short wool, 50@50c; medium, 60@80c; long, $1@1 25; shearlings, 10@20c; tallow, good to prime, 3@3½c.

WOOL—Receipts for the past six days have been 243,035 pounds. The market is dull and weak, with Eastern Oregon 9@16c, according to fineness; valley 16@20c. Eastern trade circulars: A sale of 100,000 pounds Eastern Oregon wool, at 16@17c, or about 60c, clean, is noted. There is very little new wool offering as yet here, but at San Francisco there is an active market and large sales.

The weather has been threatening rain for the entire days, but as yet it has not come. NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, June 26.—The stock market to-day was quiet and irregular in its course, but finally ended generally weak at fractional 1 ages from last evening's figures. Trusts were again more active than railroad shares in the forenoon, and the decided weakness, especially in sugar, which was sold heavy for the long account, checked the natural rising tendency of the general market and restricted the dealings to very small amounts. With the except ion of a loss of 2¾ per cent. in San Francisco preferred, the final changes in the regular list are for fractional amounts only, with a large majority of declines, and in the unlisted department sugar is down 2½ and cotton seed oil 1½.

Government bonds have been steady.

RELIGIOUS NOTES.

P. C. Advocate, June 26.

The annual camp meeting on the Canby grounds will begin to-morrow (June 27th).

The camp meeting at Fourth Plain, a few miles out from Vancouver, W. T., is reported to have been a very excellent meeting. Pastors Joslyn and Butler were assisted by the Revs. J. D. Regua and J. W. Bushong.

Bishop J. W. Hott, for twelve years editor of the Religious Telescope, the organ of the United Brethren church, recently assigned to episcopal duty on this coast, has entered vigorously upon his work. His ability and piety are widely recognized in the United Brethren Zion.

A service, unique in character, is to be held at St. Paul's church, this city, next Sunday morning, the 30th inst. It is a service for the old folks. Old-fashioned singing without choir or organ, speaking of God's goodness and a general shaking of hands will be the order of exercises. Seats reserved on the platform and in front for the aged.

Dr. H. K. Hines paid an unexpected visit of a few days to the city last week. He was called home from his district by very serious illness in his family. On Wednesday he left with his daughter for Denver, her physician having prescribed a change of climate as absolutely necessary for her. As soon as he can leave her, Dr. Hines will return to his work on his district.

The Rev. W. A. Spencer, D. D., assistant corresponding secretary of our Church Extension Society, has planned to be in Tacoma, Seattle and Portland, July 6, 7 and 9. He desires to meet the presiding elders and pastors of the Oregon conference at Portland on the 9th, and also would be glad to have a union meeting of all Methodists who can attend on the evening of that day. Timely arrangements will, we doubt not, be made by Portland pastors and due notice given.

COLORED REPUBLICANS.

They Express Confidence in the President's Policy Toward Them.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—A delegation of colored republicans waited on the president this morning and presented an address voted at the Jackson, Miss., convention on June 13, expressing confidence in the president's policy toward the colored people in that region. The president thanked them and said they could rest assured that he would do the best he could toward all classes.

Attention to the daily habits of the young prevents suffering. Take Simmons' Liver Regulator.

A MATTER OF CHOICE.

Dana, of the New York Sun, was asked whether port wine did not bring on the gout. He replied that he thought it did, but that the man who would not prefer to suffer a few twinges of the gout rather than give up his port wine wasn't a man after his heart.

Many things like this are a matter of choice, and we really believe that we are justified in saying that those who will not, in the face of the testimony which we can offer, try ATHLOPHOROS when they have Neuralgia or Rheumatism, really choose to keep the rheumatism rather than alter their opinions.

THE NORTH WEST LOAN & T

LOOK OUT, MARSHAL MYERS!

Oregon's Delegation Made a Demand on the President for Your Scalp.

The President's Indisposition to Make Indiscriminate Removals Is What Saved Your "Bacon" This Time—Senator Mitchell Talks.

Senator John H Mitchell is here for the summer When asked yesterday what he intended to do between now and the time of the meeting of congress he answered, laughingly "I am going to practice my profession of the law, and see if I cannot make enough money to keep me next winter

THE OREGONIAN has it from very good authority that not so very long ago say shortly after congress adjourned Oregon s congressional delegation called on President Harrison at the White house and represented to him that the republicans of Oregon were clamoring for the scalp of United States Marshal John Myers and that if it were possible to remove him immediately the better they would be satisfied because they regarded him as the most obnoxious of the incumbent democratic office holders

What seems to be the trouble with Marshal Myers," asked the president. Did not the democrats who petitioned President Cleveland for his appointment recommend him as a business man'

'Yes, was the reply 'He was in business in Oregon City '

Well then what is the matter? was President Harrison's next question

'He is one of the bitterest democrats in Oregon' was the answer "He worked heart and soul for the success of the party in the state election last June and he was prominently identified with the presidential campaign in the interest of Cleveland He was a member of the Thurman legion and was very frequently seen in democratic meetings '

"The fact that Marshal Myers is a democrat is not sufficient cause for his removal said the president slowly It is no crime for a man to be a democrat and hold office during a republican administration I had that I have to act cautiously in making appointments If I did not do so the democratic press will score me for making indiscriminate removal

That was all President Harrison had to say and the Oregon delegation left him

SENATOR MITCHELL ON REMOVALS.

An OREGONIAN reporter called on Senator Mitchell at his law office yesterday afternoon to get the latest information concerning the distribution of Federal patronage in this state

'Do you think the Oregon delegation will be able to agree this winter upon the names of the republicans who are to be appointed to the United States marshalship and district attorneyship the Portland postoffice and the collectorship and the Astoria collector ship' was asked

"The Oregon delegation up to the present time answered the senator have had no serious difficulty in agreeing as to the recommendations to be made to the president for appointments to office and I do not apprehend there will be any great difficulty in agreeing in the future In all the appointments that have been made from among the republicans of Oregon under the present administration, there has been a joint recommendation in writing signed by Senator Dolph Representative Hermann and myself

The policy of President Harrison as frequently announced since his inauguration both publicly and privately to the Oregon delegation, and I presume to many other delegations, is to move slowly and carefully in making appointments to office The president is beyond question making a very determined and persistent effort to ascertain the fitness of applicants for office, and he seems determined to appoint none no matter by whom recommended unless he is fully satisfied that they are in all respects competent and worthy The president is furthermore strongly disposed to make radical removals from office In other words he insists and that seems to be the policy of the administration as exhibited in each of the departments that the mere fact in and of itself that the incumbent of an office is a democrat is no of itself a sufficient cause for removal If however the incumbent is shown to be in any way incompetent or unworthy or has in any manner prostituted his office by throwing its influence against the republican party and using it as a means of advancing the interest of the democratic party then he will hesitate and he has not hesitated to remove incumbents promptly to secure a competent and faithful republican The president moreover will as rapidly as commissions expire fill all offices with republicans

The Oregon delegation I am quite sure most certainly this is the case so far as I am concerned would be very glad to be relieved from being called upon to in any manner aid or influence the president in deciding between the various applicants for the same office It is certainly in many instances a most embarrassing and delicate thing for any man or representative of the party to determine as to which one of a dozen or more equally worthy and equally competent republicans who are aspirants for the same office shall have that particular office

ONE PLUM FALLS FROM THE POLITICAL TREE.

It is customary for the president when he desires to make a change or fill a vacancy, to call upon the congress or a delegation through a letter from the head of a department to submit a name for the office to be filled This call has been made upon the senators and representative of Oregon within the past week in reference to a particular office in this section with the result that the president has decided to make a change As a rule the delegation is disposed to hesitate to attempt even to decide as between the different applicants for the same office until the president or some head of a department has intimated to us that he desires to make an appointment

The delegation while in Washington called on the president and the different cabinet officers and as representatives of the republican party in Oregon requested that all of the federal offices of this state from the highest to the lowest should be placed in the hands of republicans at the earliest possible moment that the same could be done consistent with the general policy and views of the president and his advisors and the facts in each particular case would warrant

Up to the time I left Washington on June 8 I believe nothing in the shape of charges of inefficiency or unworthiness or incompetency against any of the local or federal officials in this state had been filed with the president or in any of the departments with a single exception In the case last referred to (that of W T Burney register of the Oregon City land office) a removal was promptly made by the president The charge in this instance cannot be said at all to affect the integrity of the official removed, but it did show very clearly that he was using the patronage of his office in a manner calculated not only to build up and sustain certain democratic newspapers at the expense of republican journals but also in a manner detrimental to the public service and not in its true interest"

What office is it for which the delegation has been called upon to make a recommendation

The Indian agency at Grand Ronde

Senator Mitchell said the recommendation had been made and forwarded to Washington but thought he had to leave the name of the person recommended out now

THAT'S A HORSE OF ANOTHER COLOR.

You say the president will fill all offices with republicans so long as incumbents of incumbent democrats do not think he will not fill the federal offices in Oregon to be

The president is not in removing at random his politics or his color but when it can be shown that there is either competent inefficiency in any respectworthy or is making use of his office or patronage to strike down the republican party and the reputation and to build and advance the interests of the democratic party and the democrats If however it is made to appear to the president that the incumbent though a democrat is a competent and efficient officer and performs those duties well and is not using his office as an instrument to party ends all that the president is disposed to permit all such to serve out the terms for which they were appointed

A SHOCKING AFFAIR.

A Team Attached to a Hearse Bearing a Body Runs Away—A Horse Fatally Injured

At 4 45 o'clock yesterday afternoon as a funeral procession was moving down Morrison street a shocking occurrence took place

Just after crossing Second street one of the horses attached to the hearse which was a fine coal black animal became irritated and commenced kicking finally starting to run The driver seeing the importance of stopping the team with the least possible delay turned the animals to the left and ran into a high wood pile in front of the United States restaurant If the driver had not pursued this course the body would certainly have been thrown to the ground The horse which had been the cause of the accident suffered untold agonies however for her frightfulness In coming in contact with the wood pile one of the whiffletrees was forced into her flank cutting a deep gash from which the entrails protruded in a horrible manner

On realizing what had happened the funeral director who had been riding on a hack in front of the hearse called a coupe which was in the vicinity and taking its horses unhitched those attached to the hearse and substituting them drove off to the cemetery The whole transaction did not consume ten minutes time

The wounded animal was taken up Morrison to Second and after a halt had been made in front of Childs's drug store Here it stood for fifty five minutes greatly to the disgust of the hundreds of passers by the majority of whom were ladies Several physicians who looked at the animal said that a few stitches would save her life, but after half an hours' delay a horse doctor appeared on the scene and said that nothing could be done and that the animal would have to be shot

The owner of the animal telephoned to Cook & Kiernan's stable for a truck to take it away to be killed In the meantime several policemen had passed but, after taking a glance at the horse which could hardly stand for the pain which must have been terrible would not shoot it and thereby end its misery

Finally Officer Miller came along and after considerable delay shot the horse but only caused it to prance around and increase its pain The bullet did not strike it in the head but in the neck about eight inches back of the ears Shortly before 6 o clock a truck arrived and carried the animal away It was afterwards dispatched

The affair was very badly managed The horse's life could have been saved but if its owners wanted to get rid of it they should have had it killed at once thereby saving it a great deal of unnecessary suffering

All Visitors to Portland Loud in Their Praise of Portland's Big Hotel

The Rev Mr Cole, manager on this coast for the immense dry goods house of H B Claflin & Co of New York city while conversing with Mr S Lipman the senior member of the well known house of S Lipman & Co, of this city on the subject of Portland's hotels, was particularly loud in his praise of the spirit of liberality and enterprise shown by the people here in attempting and carrying to a successful completion as is now assured a hostelry of the magnitude and completeness in every detail of the Portland ' 'But ' continued Mr Cole what is most a matter of surprise to me is to find that a city of the size of Portland can support in the manner it does a cafe and restaurant so complete in every particular as that of Freimann s I consider it the most wonderful restaurant for a city of this size in the United States I of course have seen larger restaurants but it has never been my good luck in all my travels to enter one that was conducted in a more satisfactory manner I tell you Portland ought to take great pride in Freimann s This disinterested opinion of an outsider ought to set the Portland people to thinking Here is a restaurant and cafe in a city of 60 000 people that at once merits the commendation of every visitor who ever comes to Portland and is fortunate enough to partake of the good fare there Freimann is without a doubt one of the most successful hotel and restaurant men in the United States This success is not only due to his merit as a caterer but from the fact that while he is carefully looking after every detail of his extensive establishment he never for a moment loses sight of the comfort of his house feel entirely at home Looking to this end he has spared neither pains nor expense in fitting up his elegant place in this city I refer to a restaurant as it stands today representing an actual cash outlay of $22 000 He employs in his establishment all told thirty three men all retained at the highest salaries and every one of them an artist in his line The general public must not forget when considering the claims of Freimann s for their patronage that Freimann himself has done more to meet the requirements of the city for a cafe in keeping with the surroundings of Portland on the Willamette than have all the rest of Portland's caterers, and when the quality of fare and the service of this famous cafe are both duly considered Freimann's is one of the cheapest first-class restaurants on the coast and at the same time a dining place where is a pleasure at all times to meet even one's most influential friends The man who dines at Freimann's not only knows all about good living but he fully understands the importance that attaches to always being seen in the very best of company

AT NEW PARK THEATER

First Appearance This Evening of the Lilly Clay Gaiety Company

To-night the Lilly Clay Gaiety Company will appear at New Park Theater for a brief season The engagement includes only four performances the season closing Saturday evening In speaking of the performance a Louisville Ky exchange says

The Lilly Clay Gaiety Company opened a week s engagement last night at the Buckingham Theater to a packed house Half an hour before the curtain was rung up a line of three hundred or four hundred people had formed in front of the box office and it was nearly 8 30 o clock before the large audience was seated Every seat in the house was sold and the late comers had to be contented with standing room in the aisles The company is everything it promises to be in the bills It is made up of a score of winsome lassies with pretty faces and shapely limbs, that made the lonesome hairs on the bald heads in the front row stand up and say Ah there! The programme taken all in all was an excellent one

FRANK JARVIS CONVICTED OF INCEST

It Was Maintained That His Daughter Tried to Get His Property Away From Him

Frank Jarvis of Rooster Rock was tried in the criminal court yesterday for rape The complainant was his own daughter Mrs Josephine Ross who is 21 years of age

Jarvis denied his daughter s charges He said that shortly before she complained against him she made a demand upon him for a conveyance to his property at Rooster Rock His attorneys Messrs Edward Mendenhall and A F Sears jr maintained that the charge was brought to get Jarvis s property away from him

Mrs Ross admitted asking her father for a deed to the property She thought that in this way he would be forced to leave the community which would be the easiest way of settling the matter Her husband corroborated her in this

The case was given to the jury at 9 o clock last night and at 11 o clock a verdict of guilty of incest was returned

JUSTICE OR PERSECUTION

Is Policeman Wood Paid to Fill up the Penitentiary or Otherwise?

He Feared That Duke Evans Would Do Something Wrong and Advised His Mother to Send Him to the State's Prison

Chairman H C Wood who holds the position of officer of the Boys & Girls Aid Society appears to be too inhuman for the place he holds and the society would do well to substitute for him a man of ready humane principles and common sense Instead of looking to the protection of juvenile offenders his whole effort seems to be to send them to the penitentiary

In this of the sworn officer of an organization that has done so much toward reclaiming wayward boys and girls as the Boys and Girls Aid Society has during a mother to send her son just building into manhood to the penitentiary not because he had done anything to deserve imprisonment but because he was likely to commit some grievous offense that would call down upon the head of this self same sworn officer the burning up powers of the daily newspapers for not having exhausted his supply of powder before there was any sign of the enemy!

The case to which THE OREGONIAN refers is that of Duke Evans 19 years old who is now serving a ten days sentence in the county jail for assaulting a Chinaman Evans has been implicated in a great many petty scrapes of late years and his bad associations and mischievous disposition finally landed him in the penitentiary He was sent up with young Smallden and D K for robbing Alvin Allard an old man who lived back of Albina

Evans received a two years sentence but good conduct secured his pardon in seventeen months He returned to this city and in March 1888 he was caught in the act of robbing a house in North Portland for which he was indicted I tried my mother tell the rest of the story A reporter called at her home at No 252 Front street yesterday afternoon

OFFICER WOOD WAS VERY KIND

After Duke was indicted she said he was given a chance to escape the penitentiary provided he would leave the state for three years I gladly accepted the opportunity and sent him to his grandfather at Coeur d Alene While there he was taken down with typhoid pneumonia and for three months he was unable to work The money forwarded by me to maintain him was used by his uncle to send him home and he arrived here in the latter part of last November He was sick during December and on January 1 he went to Cape Horn to work He returned here March 1 and has been working ever since

Since my son s return Policeman Wood has called on me several times and advised me to have Duke sent to the penitentiary on the indictment for robbery which is hanging over him I told him that I was satisfied that Duke had determined to lead a better life and to that end was behaving himself and working whenever he could find work and was then driving an express Mr Wood spoke very contemptuously of this occupation and said that the boys who were engaged at it sat around all day and kept company with fallen women and it would be better if they loafed around town

I positively declined to take any steps toward sending my son to the penitentiary when I felt that he was doing the best he could If I thought for one moment that he had committed a crime I would stand aside and say let the law take its course and let the guilty be punished' Officer Wood then said to me I am afraid Duke will do something wrong and then the newspapers will burn us (presumably the society and himself) up for permitting him to get away the last time we had him' At another time when Wood was looking for Duke for a minor offense he said to me I have every policeman in the city on the lookout for Duke and I am going to put the marshal of East Portland on his track and see if I can't catch him The next time he does anything Judge Stearns will give him a good long sentence

Officer Wood has already announced his determination of pressing the old indictment and has notified County Jailer Dougherty to hold Duke when his present sentence expires as he intends to bring up the old charge that is hanging over him

WOOD WAS VERY ANGRY

'Duke until recently had been living in Vancouver A few weeks ago his younger brother visited him and when he started for home the ferryboat and trains had stopped running It was near 10 o clock and Duke hired a boat to row him across the river so that he could take the road for Portland It was a lonely walk for a young boy and Duke came with him Consequently the boat was not returned and a warrant was issued for Duke and as he could not be found his brother was arrested instead. I advised Duke a few days afterward to go to Vancouver and surrender himself and secure the release of his brother After he had started I received a dispatch telling me that the matter could be settled so I started for Vancouver Duke was on the same train but I did not meet him until we were about to board the ferry I told him that I would settle with the complaining parties and sent him home When I met Wood I told him what I had done and he was very angry and sulkily told me that I should not have taken the course I did You should have permitted Duke to give himself up he said In answer I told the officer that I had simply done what a mother s affection for her children demands

I can hardly see how the Boys and Girls Aid Society can tolerate such an officer He cost the county a great deal of money in a vain attempt to bring some alleged murderers to justice and he has been in several other scrapes Now he seems determined to send my boy to the penitentiary but because of my children he will commit but
